Dear Members and Friends of Calvary

My gratitude for your cooperation and friendship over the past forty-four years is heartfelt. In various levels of ministry I have carried out the missions of the church, serving two terms as dean of the Schuylkill Deanery, alternate deputy to General Convention, Chaplain in urban hospitals, Canon of the Cathedral Chapter, member of program, budget, and finance committees of the diocese, secretary of West Phila. Convocation and Diocesan Council, member of the Restitution Fund Commission, President for nine years of the National Black Church Worker's Conference, first Episcopal priest to be elected president of the interdenominational Hampton Minister's Conference.

The vestry and congregation have given me great freedom in extending my ministry in connection with organizations as the following:

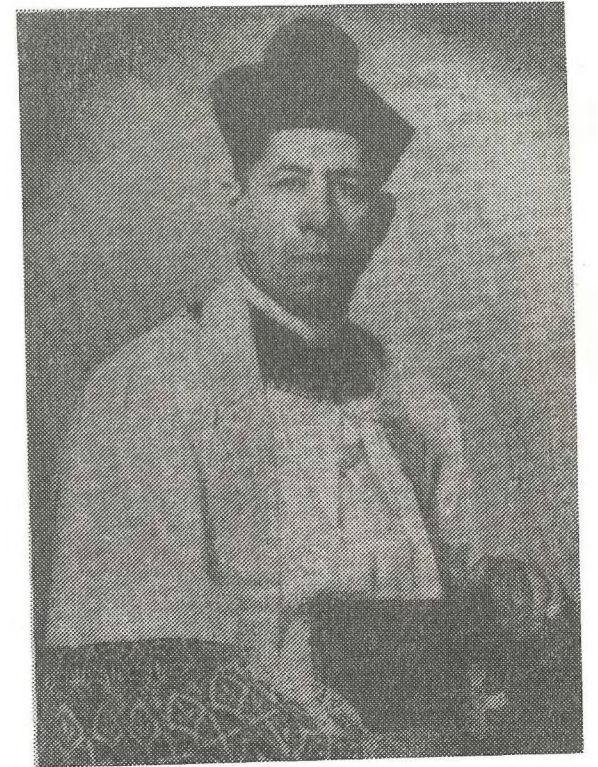

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, the Prince Hall Masons as Grand Master, the Elks as their National Chaplain, the Frontiers' National Chaplain, The Rafter's Charities, the Tribune Charities, the N.A.A.C.P., the Friends of Scouting, the Afro-American Museum and others where I had an influence and an opportunity to serve others.

We are happy that several "sons of Calvary" have gone into the sacred priesthood - namely Peter Golden, Walter Firby, Edward Geyer, William Maddox and Thomas Logan, Jr., Rena Graves is a candidate for the diaconate. We are thankful that Tom Jr. is carrying on the Logan family tradition in St. Paul Minnesota.

I am grateful to my dad who was my revered guide and excellent example in my early ministry, and to my mother, a kindly and gracious lady who raised eight children and served as president of St. Simon's Episcopal Church Women for many years. Last, but not least, I am grateful to my wife, Hermione, who has been a staunch supporter during good and bad times, encouraging me whether I succeeded or failed.

With dedicated persons on the vestry and in the congregation, Calvary will carry on and reach new heights in the years ahead. I trust that the new rector will carry on the Anglo-Catholic tradition of the parish and be a good administrator. Just keep your hand in God's hand and all will be well. God Bless all of you.

Please continue to love and pray for your longtime priest and friend.

Bishop White and Calvary Church

Calvary Episcopal Church, Northern Liberties, was organized in 1846 as the "living memorial" to William White, the first Episcopal Bishop of Pennsylvania.

Bishop White was born on April 4, 1748 in our city and graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1765 and was ordained an Anglican priest in 1772 in Great Britain, becoming the assistant minister of Christ Church and St. Peter's Church.

When the Revolutionary War came to Pennsylvania, all of the Anglican clergymen sided with the British except for White who had to flee for his life when the Red Coats occupied our city in 1777 - 78.

He was appointed Rector of Christ Church in 1779 and was consecrated Bishop of Pennsylvania in 1787 by the Archbishop of Canterbury in England. Elected the Presiding Bishop of the national Church in 1795, he continued in that position until his death in 1836, all the while serving as the Bishop of Pennsylvania and the Rector of Christ Church. How remarkable!

Bishop White is best remembered for his ordination of Absalom Jones, the first black priest in America, Episcopal or Roman. His social ministry included founding the Episcopal Academy, School for the Deaf, Prison Society, Sunday School, Bible Society and others. He was a advocate of the poor and the oppressed and was considered to be the "First Citizen" of our city.

His sister, Mary, was the wife of Robert Morris, the "Financier of the Revolution and was the intimate friend of Martha Washington.

The Bishop passed on to his Eternal Reward in 1836 and was buried in the chancel of Christ Church.

After a period of ten years during which a fitting memorial was discussed, the "Women's Missionary Society" of Christ Church took action and organized Calvary Church on the waterfront as the Monument to White - long before the day of Woman's Lib.

Brief History of Calvary, N.L.

The small congregation of Calvary Church first met in a sail loft with the Rev. Joseph Smith as its first clergyman. As the membership increased the need for a permanent edifice was evident and the original Calvary Church was built on the corner of Front and Margaretta Streets and occupied in 1852. The official consecration took place in 1856 when the entire House of Bishops was in attendance. The church grew and prospered and boasted a Sunday School of 300 children.

The seventh Rector of Calvary, the Rev. Thomas Poole Hutchinson, was installed in 1874 and almost single-handedly rescued Calvary Church from being destroyed by the railroad and industrial expansion of that era. Determined to save Bishop White's Monument, he "almost alone" gathered money and purchased the present site of our church in West Philadelphia. Calvary Church was pulled down, each stone and timber was numbered and brought to 41st and Parrish and re-erected as formerly, in 1883 - minus the steeple.

Once more the church began to flourish as before as the residential building boom came to West Philadelphia.

The St. Michael and All Angels Home for Crippled Colored Children was founded in 1886 by Mrs. Pauline Henry of St. Mark's Church. Two years later, the St. Michael and All Angels Chapel was built, the third oldest black Episcopal congregation in the city.

The Chapel came alive when Father J. DeCosta Harewood, their first black priest, was called as the vicar. He was succeeded in 1920 by Father Arthur Goffe-Coombs who was called to his Eternal Reward three years later.

In 1940, a young priest, Father Thomas S. Logan, was called to St. Michael and All Angels and the membership began to grow by leaps and bounds.

St. Michael's Chapel finally became a parish in 1945 with Father Logan as its first, and also its last rector as events were soon to prove.

A few blocks away on 41st Street, Calvary Church was experiencing its second crisis - greatly decreased membership caused by the changing racial patterns. At Bishop Hart's urging, the Calvary Vestry voted to invite the congregation and rector of St. Michael's and All Angels to merge with Calvary Church and the two congregations united on September 9, 1945. The history of the church is continued in pictorial form from this point onward: Enjoy it!

Dear Father Logan:

Nancy and I are pleased to join with your family and friends in offering our congratulations on your retirement.

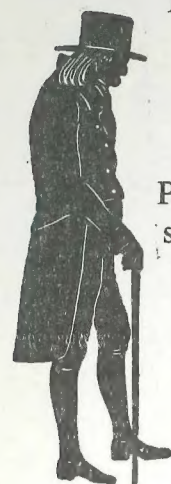

The solemn purpose to which you have dedicated your life has been well served. You have tended to the spiritual needs of others with diligence and devotion. Because yours is a vocation from which there is no true retirement, I know that you will embark on new paths in the service of God.

May God bless and keep you in the years ahead.

Sincerely,

CITY OF PHILADELPHIA

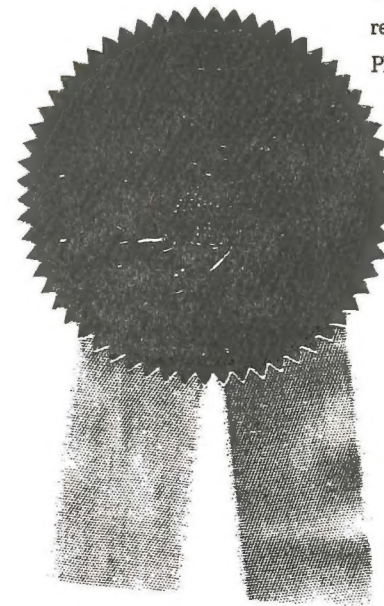

CITATION

Rev. Canon Thomas W. S. Logan, Sr.

For the past forty-six years, Father Thomas W. S. Logan, pastor of Calvary Episcopal Church has been a source of inspiration and guidance despite changing times and changing conditions. His pastorate has been meaningful to the people of Philadelphia, providing them with opportunities for worship, spiritual growth, and service to the community.

Active in many organizations, Father Logan is a past president of the Philadelphia Chapter of Frontiers International, charter member of the Afro-American Historical and Cultural Museum, and past president of the National Church Workers Conference. He is also a member of the Hero Scholarship Fund and the bi-racial Council of the Philadelphia Police Department.

On Sunday, March 18, Father Logan is being honored by the Calvary Episcopal Church congregation on the occasion of his retirement as pastor of this historic West Philadelphia church. Accordingly, the City of Philadelphia is pleased to present this Citation to Father Thomas W. S. Logan, Sr. in recognition of his outstanding contributions to the Episcopal Church and the Philadelphia community.

Dear Father Tom:

For the past 46 years, your expansive and wonderful record of Christian service in Holy Orders in this diocese and across the nation makes this brief letter difficult to write. How does one cover your foot-steps taken in Christ's discipleship bringing love, faith, and hope to so many, many people and in so many different and difficult circumstances. You have set a pace that will never be matched. But at this glorious moment when you stop to take a breath before racing off to another opportunity for Christian servanthood, we want to say: thank you and thank God for you; and may you always stand close to your Lord and Master.

Dear Father Logan:

It gives me a great deal of personal pleasure to greet you and to congratulate you on behalf of the entire Johnson C. Smith University family on the occasion of your retirement from the active ministry in the Episcopal Church which you have served with such singular distinction. When one thinks of four decades of service in "kingdom Building" and in addition to a very active and fruitful avocation of civic and political (community, state and national), it follows that a very special milestone has been reached and a well-deserved slowing of pace is in order. The gauntlet which you have worn so well will be passed on to your successor and we can only hope that it will, with your blessings, be shouldered as well.

We know that your parishioners, and the community of which you are a part will give the proper accolades of what you have meant to them and to the region. But as a Loyal Son of Smith we want to say to you this evening that the honor you have brought to yourself also honors your Alma Mater. We are therefore proud to salute you on this occasion and to wish for you many years ahead in which to enjoy good health, to do most, if not all, of the things you have not heretofore found time to do and just enjoy living at a more leisurely pace. May God's Richest Blessings continue upon you and your loved ones.

Dear Dr. Logan:

I send you personal greetings and those of the entire community on the occasion of your retirement after forty-five years of service in the active ministry. We join with your many friends and associates in honoring your accomplishments as an ordained minister of the Church and for your many humanitarian concerns.

We are proud to number you among the alumni of this Seminary and, due to your fine example, to number your son, Thomas, Jr., as an alumnus, as well. I am well aware of your abiding interest in and support of the Seminary through the years and I am especially grateful for the support given me during my five years as Dean of the General Theological Seminary.

May God continue to bless you and the years of ministry that lie ahead for you. I hope that you will be able to enjoy the fruits of your many years of labor and the rest which you so richly deserve. This comes with my very warmest and best of wishes for you and Mrs. Logan on this very special occasion.

Dear Father Logan:

I would like to take this opportunity to write to you and thank you for the many, many years of friendship and cooperation which you have always given to me and to my organizations.

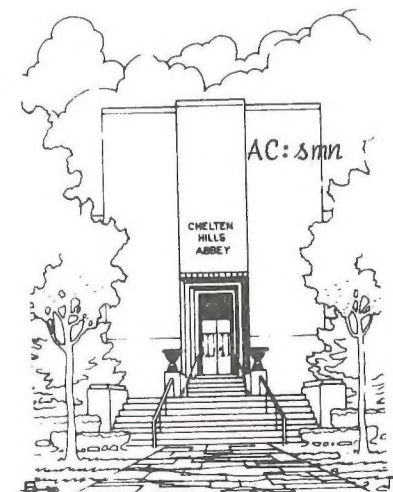

Whenever I have called upon you, you have never hesitated to respond in a positive manner. It has been one of my rare privileges to have met you and shared time with you under sometimes very trying circumstances, as well as pleasant moments. I look forward to being with you at the banquet to be held in your honor on March 18, 1984 and I wish you every success and good health in future years.

If I can ever be of any assistance to you, I think that you know that all you need do is call me.

Who Is This Man

Earlier today at the Cheyney University graduation ceremonies, a colleague said to me, "I hear that the Alphas have a major activity today in Philadelphia. Who is this man that everyone is honoring?" While it may seem that it is a simple question, for me it is quite difficult. His name alone would never be enough to answer this question.

WHO IS THIS MAN? He is the man who with his lovely and kind wife, Aunt Hermione invited my family to live with them at 1231 N. 58th St. when we first moved to Philadelphia and did not have the resources to acquire our own home. We lived with them until we were able to get our own home.

WHO IS THIS MAN? He is the man who, when TV was first made available and my family did not own one, invited us twice per week to see the Texaco Variety Hour and Milton Berle on Tuesday evenings. He enjoyed life and enjoyed having people share good times with him.

WHO IS THIS MAN? He is the man who made church valuable to me while many of my friends in school dreaded it each week. It was an honor to be one of his acolytes. We learned both the rules and the relaxation which church can give. I can remember many Sundays when Mr. McCoy, Mr. Joe Smith, and Mr. Bobby King would be working with us and Father would come into the back room near the altar and say, "O.K. boys load up the incense we're going to give them a show". What a show we would give. We would all be exactly in step and make each move perfectly (and reverently).

WHO IS THIS MAN? He is the man who, while we were learning and playing in Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts meetings with excellent leaders, would drop in and say, "Boys what is a scout?" While anyone observing would expect this request to lead to punishment, in fact they would get an excellent display of scouting since we all enjoyed displaying our knowledge for him. No one would make an error when performing for Father. I still know that a scout is trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean, and reverent. It is interesting to note that our first black astronaut Lt. Col. Guion Bluford was also a member of our troop 63.

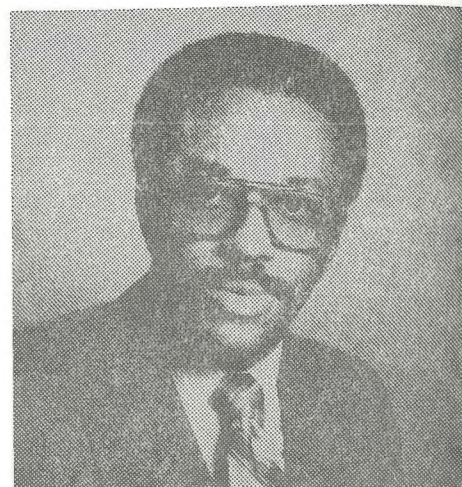

WHO IS THIS MAN? He is a man who exposed me to strong Alpha men, e.g. Mr. Harold Nelson, Dr. R. Allen Durrant, Dr. Robert Poindexter, Dr. James Trotman, Dr. Phillip Hoggard, Mr. Gene Dillon and many others. He showed through these men and other fine persons in this church what real leadership can be. We had great models as youth in this church.

WHO IS THIS MAN? He is a man who built a church with both the rich and the very poor. We had the young and the very old working and worshiping together. We were not just a church family, we each feel that we have a special connection with Father Logan. He has created a unique subculture around himself which is important to everyone in the church. WHO IS THIS MAN, who at any moment may call on anyone to speak from the pews of the church. He follows all of the laws and rules but interprets them with compassion. He may wear the robes of a Roman Catholic but he has the hands, heart and healing balm of a Baptist. You should hear him preach and pray.

WHO IS THIS MAN? Some call him Father. Some call him Canon. Some call him Reverend. Some call him Brother. This minister is a good man.

WHO IS THIS MAN? I do not yet know all of the dimensions of this man. Yet I am proud to have a chance to get to know him. He is the Reverend Canon Dr. Thomas Wilson Sterley Logan, Sr.

By: J. Otis Smith

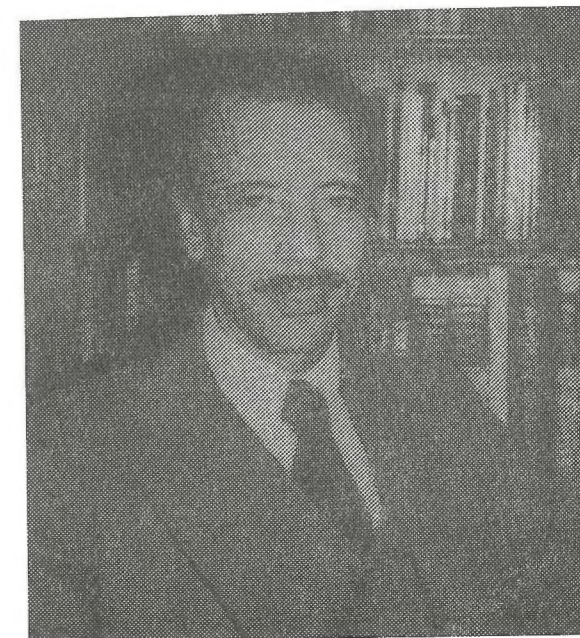

Remarks given by Dr. Philip Hoggard at the SALUTE TO THE REVEREND BROTHER THOMAS W.S. LOGAN Sponsored by Rho Chapter, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. At Calvary Church, Sunday, December 18, 1983 - 4:00 P.M.

It is indeed a pleasure and privilege for me to have an opportunity to speak a few words in tribute to Father Logan. He is my priest, my brother and friend. Because of the limitations of time, I must be brief, though one could talk for hours about the "Noble Deeds" of Brother Father Thomas Logan.

As priest and pastor, he truly has served the needs of all his parishioners. We know that today, many pastors do not visit the sick, but have assistants to do this. Father Logan visits, not only the sick of our parish, but any sick or needy person who may seek his help. I can never forget an incident when I was in the hospital.

Upon awaking early one Sunday morning, despite the pouring rain, Father Logan was standing by my bed at 6:00 A.M. to give me Communion. I said to him, "Father Logan, you should not have come here in all this rain. You have two services today at church." He replied, "Don't worry about me, Phil, I'm glad that I can do this...I'll be alright." This story could be repeated countless times, by people throughout the city. We love him dearly and thank God for his service to Calvary Church, the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity and to the entire city of Philadelphia.

"He has felt the satisfaction of a task well done, so he knows what happiness is,
He has a loving wife and had devoted parents,
so he knows what love is,
He has seen strong men pause to help little children, so he knows what greatness is,
He has heard his son say, "Thanks Dad"
so he knows what heaven is,
He has seen neglected children with needs unfulfilled,
so he knows what suffering is,
He has seen people give up,
so he knows what death is,
He has chosen the difficult, instead of the easy, so he knows what peace is
He has experienced the joy of abiding friendships, so he knows what God is." (Methodist Church Magazine 1968)

Thank you Father Logan for greatly enriching our lives, May God ever bless you!

Brief Biographical Sketch

The Reverend Canon Thomas W.S. Logan, Sr., D.D.

Born March 19, 1912, our rector, the second son of the Reverend John R. Logan, Sr. and Mary Harbison Logan, is carrying on the tradition of parochial and community service for which his father was both respected and loved.

A product of Philadelphia public schools, Central High, Johnson C. Smith University, the General Theological Seminary and the Philadelphia Divinity School, he is a vigorous exponent of the church in religious, fraternal and community life.

He was made Deacon, June 13, 1938 in Holy Apostle's. He advanced to the priesthood on June 5, 1939 in historic St. Peter's Church, 3rd and Pine Streets. He served briefly as curate at St. Phillips, New York, which he left to become Vicar of St. Michael and All Angels Chapel in January, 1940. By 1945 - The Chapel of St. Michael had achieved parish status and the vestry of Calvary invited the parish of St. Michael and All Angels to become a vital part of its dwindling congregation. A beautiful merger took place in September, 1945. For the past 39 years his heart has been at the historic Calvary Church, the Monument to Bishop White, first American Episcopal priest to be consecrated Bishop in England and to return to America as head of the Anglican Church here. Father Logan and his congregation are proud that Calvary is firmly rooted in history and in the tradition of the Anglican Church.

Father Logan is also linked historically with Bishop White and Absalom Jones. The good Bishop ordained Absalom Jones as the first Black priest in the Episcopal Church. Later, the Reverend Jones became the first Grand Master of the Prince Hall Masons of this state, 1815-1816. Father Logan also became the Grand Master of the Masonic order in 1968-1969!

Long convinced that the work of the ministry should touch all facets of daily living, he has been cited for distinguished service with various boards, the Emblem Club of the YMCA for fund raising the Tribune Charities, Negro College Fund, United Fund, Rafters Charities, Older Boy's Club, George T. Cornish Post No. 292 and DeMolay Consistory No.1. For nine years he was the secretary of the West Philadelphia Convocation now known as the Schuylkill Deanery where he served two consecutive three year terms as dean. He was honored by being appointed one of the Canons of the Cathedral of the Diocese. In addition, he is currently serving in his ninth year on the Diocesan Council.

Father Logan is a past president of the Philadelphia Chapter of Frontiers International, charter member of the Afro-American Historical and Cultural Museum, the Restitution Commission, life member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, presently chaplain of Rho Chapter of same, a past president and life member of the Darby Branch NAACP, president of Camp Hope for deserving "little citizens" of Delaware County. Chaplain for 16 years of the Prince Hall Masons and for 2 years the Grand Master of same at which time he initiated the Temple Fund for the purchase of 4301 N. Broad Street, the present home of the Prince Hall Grand Lodge.

Our rector is presently serving on the Board of Directors of Haverford State Hospital and as Chaplain to Episcopalians at Presbyterian Hospital. He is a member of the Hero Scholarship Fund for firemen and policemen, the bi-racial Council of the Philadelphia Police Department, Chaplain of the 16th & 19th Districts, the Law Center West Advisory Board, a board member of the Belmont Improvement Association; past President and honorary member of the Trustees of the Downingtown Industrial School; Past President of the Hampton Interdenominational Minister's Conference; past President of the National Church Workers Conference for nine years.

In the craft he is Past Master of Campbell Washington Joppa Lodge No. 37; Companion of Eastern Light Chapter No. 8; Sir Knight of Union Commandery No. 1; Grand Inspector General of the United Supreme Council; Past Honorary Potentate of Pyramid Temple No. 1 (former Imperial Chaplain of Shrinedom). One of the charter members and a past Patron of Vashi Chapter 100, Order of Eastern Star.

In Elksdom, our rector is a member of the Quaker City Lodge No. 720; First Assistant Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge and an honorary Grand Exalted Ruler.

Our rector is especially appreciative of the support and understanding of his faithful parishioners which attests to his ministry at Calvary as they and his family share him with the broader community. They are proud that their rector ministers without regard to denomination wherever he is needed and that our membership has increased from 150 baptized members in 1940 to a present membership of 1,150 (585 active). Over the years the record shows 2,766 baptisms, 1,655 confirmations, 458 marriages, 1,127 burials.

We salute the man who gives so freely of his time and energy to all who call upon him. May God continue to prosper him.

The Saint Michael and All Angels Guild of Calvary Episcopal Church, N.L., was organized February 29, 1934, in St. Michael and All Angels Chapel, 43rd and Wallace Streets. It is the oldest Guild in what is now Calvary Episcopal Church, N.L. and has served the parish in many ways during its existence for the past 50 years.....Half a Century!

We dedicate this page to the founders, current membership, those who were at one time active members, those deceased and to our rector, the Reverend Fr. Canon Thomas W.S. Logan, Sr., D.D. Finally, our appreciation for his ministry and our best wishes to him as he retires as rector and the spiritual leader of our congregation. We celebrated our 50th Anniversary on February 26, 1984 and we are delighted that he is still with us.

Latin Casino 1962 with Nat King Cole

Calvary is a social as well as a Spiritual Church and good Christian Fellowship is an important aspect of our church. Many social activities and programs are fund raisers which augment the church budget. One of the largest and most successful social events was a night at the Latin Casino in 1962, when Nat 'King' Cole was the feature attraction. More than 1500 tickets were sold by the church and a good time was had by all. We have a group of Calvarites with the 'King'.

MARY ENID WILLIAMS TROTMAN

A Christian Profile

June 18, 1905 - July 18, 1979

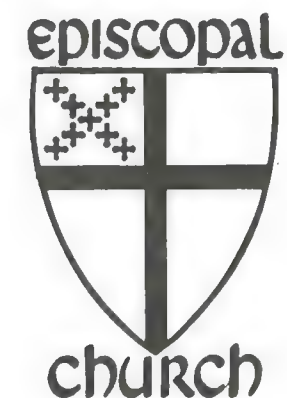

Beginning in 1937 and continuing for more than forty years, the congregations of St. Michael's and All Angels and Calvary Episcopal Church knew Mary Enid Williams Trotman as a tireless and inspired Christian who served her church in many ways. She was at various times Clerk and Secretary for the church, a vestry woman recognized for her knowledge of the liturgy, and a faithful member of many guilds, particularly the Altar Guild where she trained many in the procedures necessary for the sacred care of the church. However, it was in the music of the church that Enid Trotman distinguished herself. She was Organist and Choir Director for nearly two generations of choristers, training and leading them in the ministry of Christian music. While she made demands of everyone, Enid Trotman demanded excellence especially from herself. Yet her achievements and stature never kept from laughing at herself with that beautiful smile she showed when she knew she had done something she thought silly, or in joining in our common laughter at the humor in our everyday lives.

Mary Enid Williams Trotman was born on June 18, 1905, the first of two daughters born to Walter and Mary Williams in Philadelphia, Pa. She was raised and educated in the public schools of Philadelphia. On July 11, 1923 she was united in Holy Matrimony to James Clarence Trotman. Although in the years to come the church and her family would dominate her life, Enid Trotman had varied social and community interests. She was a professional singer with the Drury Grand Opera Company of Philadelphia, several times a president for local parent-teacher groups, a den mother with the Boy Scouts of America, and for forty-six years an active member of Les Ultra Dames, a charitable and civic organization. On this foundation of Christian devotion and public service, Mary Enid Williams Trotman left a life of principle and purpose to her sons, Dr. C. James Trotman and Dr. Bruce W. Trotman, relatives and a host of friends.

Calvary Church, Germantown

The Reverend John H. Leser, Rector

Pulaski Avenue and Manheim Street

Our prayers, warmest greetings and blessings are cordially sent to Father Logan from his many friends at Calvary Episcopal Church, Germantown.

We shall always remember and cherish our very special "Calvary - to - Calvary" worship exchanges throughout 1983 when we were drawn by the Spirit to visit one another and to make a joyful (and even harmonious) noise unto the Lord!

May God continue to bless and strengthen Father Logan with many rich years in his new ministry of retirement....and all the wonderful and faithful members of the Calvary family.

Congratulations and Best Wishes

in New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, La. — New Orleans Mayor Ernest N. (Dutch) Morial has appointed Philadelphia native Robert E. Dabney, Jr. to the post of Acting Director of the Office of Public Information and Press Secretary to the Mayor.

Dabney, 27, is the son of Robert, Sr. and Doris P. Dabney of Mt. Airy, and grandson of the late civic leader Harold L. Pilgrim, Sr. and Carmen Pilgrim. Prior to his appointment, Dabney served as deputy director of the press office for Mayor Morial. Before joining the mayor's staff in 1980, Dabney was News Director of WYLD Radio in New Orleans, and worked as a newsman at various radio stations in New Orleans.

Dabney, attended West Nottingham Academy in Colora, Md., and studied international relations at Tulane University on a Naval ROTC Scholarship. He has served on the Board of Directors of the Press Club of New Orleans as well as New Orleans Blacks in Communications. He also served as Conference Coordinator for the 1983 Annual Conference of the National Association of Black Journalists in New Orleans in September.

As head of the press office, Dabney will direct media relations both in New Orleans and nationally for Morial, the first Black mayor of the city. Morial, elected in 1978 and again in 1982, has two years remaining in his term in office.

Dabney, the first Black to hold the position, was appointed to fill the vacancy left by John S. Bender, who has taken a position with Texas Congressman J.J. Pickle.

GLAD YOU ASKED!

Energy is a popular topic and many people have energy related questions.

It's true, electricity and the electric utility business are complicated subjects, but Philadelphia Electric wants to help you and your group understand them better.

That's why the Philadelphia Electric Speakers Bureau was formed.

The PECO Speakers Bureau is a group of employees with experience in various areas of the electric business. These people volunteer their time to help answer questions and increase public awareness on energy issues.

If your group, club or organization would like to learn more about the utility business and energy issues, give us a call. We probably have a presentation or movie that would help answer your energy questions.

For further information or a copy of our new program booklet, call Philadelphia Electric Company's Consumer Affairs Division—841-4121.
